AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION 1951

A QUARTERLY REVIEW OF IDEAS, TECHNIQUES, PROBLEMS AND ACHIEVEMENTS IN DOCUMENTATION

VOL. II, NOS. 1-4 JANUARY-OCTOBER 1951

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION

Published quarterly by the American Documentation Institute through its Committee on Publications. The scheduled numbers are: Winter (January), Spring (April), Summer (August) and Fall (October). Publication in part made possible by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

EDITOR

VERNON D. TATE
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Cambridge 39, Mass.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

NORMAN T. BALL
O.E.E.C.
London, England

HELEN L. BROWNSON
Scientific Information Office
National Science Foundation
Washington, D. C.

RALPH H. CARRUTHERS
New York Public Library
New York, N. Y.

HERMAN H. FUSSLER
University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

DAN LACY
Library of Congress
Washington, D. C.

JAMES W. PERRY
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Cambridge 39, Mass.

EUGENE B. POWER
University Microfilms
Ann Arbor, Mich.

RALPH R. SHAW
U. S. Department of Agriculture
Washington, D. C.

HENRY M. SILVER
American Council of Learned Societies
New York, N. Y.

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION is an independent, impartial critical journal whose editors and publishers are motivated only by the spirit of scientific inquiry and service to the users of documentation. Publication is on a cooperative, non-profit basis. The editors while they assume editorial responsibility do not necessarily endorse the opinions expressed by the writers. No comment or pronouncement may be cited as official endorsement of the American Documentation Institute. Permission must be obtained from the Editorial Office to reprint any article in full or to quote extensively.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $5.00 (five dollars) per year postpaid in the United States and abroad; single copies $1.50. Payment should be made direct to AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION, 1719 N Street N.W., Washington 6, D. C.

ADVERTISING will be accepted. Advertising schedules and other information available from the Editorial Office.

EDITORIAL OFFICE: General correspondence, communications for the Editors and all manuscripts should be directed to:

VERNON D. TATE, Editor AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
77 Massachusetts Avenue, Room 14 S 216
Cambridge 39, Mass.

Communications and pertinent manuscripts are solicited; the non-profit character of the journal precludes payment for manuscripts and those sent will be at the owners' risk.

LITHOPRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA BY
CUSHING - MALLOY, INC., ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, 1952

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION

Annual Index, Volume II, Nos. 1-4

JANUARY-OCTOBER, 1951

Abstracts of corrosion literature (COI), 116
Accessibility of knowledge (COI), 252
ACRL Monographs, 241
ACS Board of Director minutes, June 6, 1951 (COI), 171
AEC, ASTIA, NACA catalog card (Gray), 219-221, 261-262
American Documentation Institute: Agenda for the Stated Annual Meeting, January 31, 1952 (Conrad), 186; Annual Meeting, 77-80; Annual Meeting, 1951 (Evans), 69-76; Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws of, as of January 1, 1952, 192-200; Committee on Organization of Information, 59-68, 116-126, 171-180, 252-259; Hewitt-Miles proposals, 190; List of nominating agencies and members 1951, 127-129; List nominees for membership in, 200-201; List of periodicals on microfilm, 1951, 108-109; Membership question (Evans), 187-189; Message to members of (Evans), 185-186; Officers and committees of, 190-192; The president's newsletter (Evans), 185-200; Proposals for new organizations in the field of documentation, 190; Proposed Documentation Society, 190; Report of the Membership Committee, 189-190; Supplemental publication, a problem in documentation (McBride), 249-251; Tentative program for the deferred Annual Meeting, February 26-27, 1952, 186-187
American impressions (Urquhart), 100-102
American Printer, 132, December 1951 (COI), 252
Aspects of archival publication, 241-242
Association of College and Reference Libraries initiates new publication, ACRL Monographs, 241
Association of Research Libraries Committee on national needs (COI), 116

Backfiles of current periodicals available on microfilm, 242
Ball, Norman T. Notes on the German classification of patents (COI), 59
Baptist publications on microfilm, 109, 242.
Bar-Hillel, Yehoshua. The present state of research on mechanical translation, 229-237
Baumhofer, Hermine M. Motion pictures become federal records (COI), 252
Benson, B.S. Description of an automatic data-analyzing machine (COI), 59
Bernal, J.D. Lessons of the war for science (COI), 59; Social function of science (COI), 116
Bibliographic, development in the social sciences (Egan), 11-18; Management (Shera), 47-54
Bibliography, in an age of science (COI), 171; of science in Latin America (COI), 171-172
Bliss, Henry E. The problem of classification for bibliography, and a proposal (COI), 59-60
Boig, Fletcher S., and Howerton, Paul W. History and development of chemical periodicals in the field of organic chemistry: 1877-1949 (COI), 252
Bond, D.S. and Duke, V.J., Ultrafax (COI), 60
Boni, Albert, Microprint, 150-152
Bonn, George A. Relative usefulness of indexing and abstracting service (COI), 172
Born, Lester K. International Council on archives (COI), 172; Planning for microfilm operations, 1-5
Bray, Robert S. Rapid announcement of the contents of scientific journals, 213-216
Brewer, Chloe S. Abstracting and indexing (COI), 60
Brief outline of UNESCO's library and bibliographical programes, 1951 (COI), 172
Briet, Suzanne. Inquiry concerning the professional education of librarians and documentalists (COI), 252-253
Bristol, Roger P. Control of subject information: can it be mechanized? (COI), 172
Brode, Wallace R. Journal abbreviations (COI), 172
Brodman, Estelle, Thomas P. Fleming and Seymour Robb. A continuous bibliographic service in university libraries (COI), 118-119
Brown, J.J. and E.W. Leaver. Electronics and human beings (COI), 256
Burgess, L.A. The bibliographic system of classification (COI), 116-117
Butterfield, Lyman H. The guides that bring the history of America into focus (COI), 172-173

Cappon, Lester J., Ernest H. Priest and Luta M. Sewell. Creation of records: the program of Colonial Williamsburg (COI), 177
Carruthers, R.H. Recording of master negatives in the Union List of microfilms, 259-260.
Center for Scientific Aids to Learning, 242
Certain resolutions in the UNESCO program for 1952 of possible interest to librarians (COI), 173
Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of ADI as of January 1, 1952, 192-200
Challans, B.W.S. Scientific information and the research establishment (COI), 253
Changes deemed necessary in Patent Office practices Abstracting services of government agencies and special indexing services reviewed (COI), 117
Changes in existing law, 112
Chemical Abstracts (Tate), 181
Chicago Conference on bibliographic organization, 5-7

Clapp, Verner W. Indexing and abstracting: recent past and lines of future development (COI), 60; rationalization of publication of scientific literature (COI), 117
Clearing house on bibliographic projects (COI), 173
Coblans, Herbert. Some notes on American practice in documentation (COI), 117-118
Cockburn, J.G. The indexing of abstracts (COI), 60
Committee on Indexing and Abstracting (Crane), 245-246
Committee on Organization of Information, 59-68, 116-126, 171-180, 252-259
Conference on rapid transmission of information (COI), 253
Congressional hearings and reports to be microfilmed, 109
Conrad, G. Miles. Agenda for the stated Annual Meeting, ADI, January 31, 1952, 186; Thermo-fax, Stenafax and Xerox, 95-97; User needs in a microfacsimile reader, 201-204
Continuous film processing machines, 242
Contribution to the National Bibliography (COI), 253
Coöperative development of research collections in the United States (Metcalf), 18-20
Crane, E.J. Committee on Indexing and Abstracting, 245-246; Discussion of "Discovering sources of research material", 83
Cremer, H.W. Scientific communication (COI), 118
Crowley, John D. The training of the documentalist (COI), 60-61
Croxton, Fred E. The location of literature of atomic energy (COI), 173
Cumulative catalog technique at the Library of Congress (Gull), 131-141

Daily reports, foreign radio broadcasts to be microfilmed, 242
Danker, William H. The mobilization of scientific facts (COI), 173
Davis, Watson. Developments in auxiliary publication, 7-11; 15 years experience with auxiliary publication, 87-89
Deignan, Stella Leche. The medical sciences information exchange of the National Research Council (COI), 118
Delany, Robert F. The administration of Intelligence Archives (COI), 173
Development of library resources, 242
Developments in auxiliary publication (Davis), 7-11
D'Haenens, Leon. Documentation autonome ou collective? (COI), 173-174
Digital computing machine, 242-243
Directory of microfilm and photocopying services (COI), 118
Discovering sources of research material (Groesbeck), 80-82; Discussion of (Crane), 83
Ditmas, E.M.R. The co-ordination of abstracting services -UNESCO's approach to the problem (COI), 61
Documentation techniques in the U.S.A., 243
Donker Duyvis, F. Das Verhaltnes von nationaler und internationaler Dokumentation (COI), 118; Directories of documentation centres (COI), 61
Duke, V.J. and D.S. Bond. Ultrafax (COI), 60

Earliest experiments in microphotography (Luther), 167-170
East European accessions list, Library of Congress Information Bulletin, (COI), 253
Eastin, Roy. The point of view of the Division of Public Documents, 160-162
Editorial notes (COI), 61
"Editorial" unanswered questions (COI), 253
Editor's corner (Tate), 181-184, 259-262
Egan, Margared E. Bibliographic development in the social sciences, 11-18
Egan, Margaret and Jesse H. Shera (Editors) Bibliographical Organization (COI), 178
Ellsworth, R.S. New horizons with microfilm, 221-228
English literary periodicals, 109-110
Erhart, John A. Ultra-high-speed facsimile systems (COI), 253
Evans, Luther H. Membership question, 187-189; Message to the members of the American Documentation Institute, 185-186; Newsletter: the 1951 annual meeting of the American Documentation Institute, 69-76; President's newsletter, 185-200
Evidentiary value of microfilmed records, 110-112

Faigri, Knut. Language problems in science (COI), 253-254
Farradine, J.E.L. A scientific theory of classification and indexing and its practical applications (COI), 61-62
"Faxcard" business unit allows fast reproduction (COI), 62
Fifteen years experience with Auxiliary Publication (Davis), 87-89
First annual report of the Advisory Council on Scientific Policy (1947-1948) (COI), 62
First report of the Committee on Industrial Productivity (COI), 62
Fleming, Thomas P., Estelle Brodman and Seymour Robb. A continuous bibliographic service in university libraries (COI), 118-119
Foreword (Tate), iii-iv
Frauendorfer, Sigmund Von. International unification of cataloging? (COI), 174
Fulcher, Gordon S. The usefulness of analytic abstracts (COI), 62-63

General report of the Conference on the Improvement of Bibliographic Services, UNESCO House, Paris, 7-10 November 1950 (COI), 119
Gotschall, Edward. Photographic composition machines (COI),174

Gray, Dwight E. AEC,ASTIA,NACA catalog card 219-221, 261-262; Controlling the technical report (COI), 254; Dissemination of technical information by AEC (COI), 254; Experiment in standardization: a report from Washington (COI), 63; Library of Congress Science Division (COI), 119; NRS microcards (COI), 119; Recent developments in Physics abstracting (COI), 174; User reaction to ONR-NRS microcards (COI), 174
Green, John W. The use of punched cards in the teaching of qualitative organic analysis (COI), 254
Groesbeck, Joseph A. Discovering sources of research material, 80-82
Gropp, Arthur E. Presentation (COI), 175
Gull, C.D. The cumulative catalog technique at the Library of Congress, 131-141
Guthrie, Warren. Books, civilization, and science (COI), 119

Handbook of human engineering data for design engineers (COI), 254
Hanson, C.W. Costing information services (COI), 254
Harris, Alfred G. Organizing the United Nations documents collection, 141-149
Harrison, George R. Twenty years of age (COI), 254-255
Haughton, Sidney H. The preservation of records by microphotography in the United States of America (COI), 63
Heatwole, M.K. and Saul Herner. The planning of libraries for military research establishments (COI), 175
Herner, Saul and M.K. Heatwole. The planning of libraries for military research establishments (COI), 175
Hewitt, William F. Jr. Science communications (COI), 255
Hewitt-Miles proposals, A.D.I., 190
Holmes, Donald C. Mechanical methods of enlargement print production and related processes in use at the Library of Congress, 216-219
Holstrom, J.E. The relation between reference symbols and language, (COI), 63
Huebner, William C. The photronic reproducer, 238-240

Ichikawa, Taijiro. The National Diet Library in Japan (COI), 175
ICSU establishes international abstract service (COI), 255
Interim report of the classification panel, Information Services Committee, Royal Society (COI), 175
International conference on science abstracting, final report (COI), 255
International exchange of scientific and technical publications (COI), 175-176
International federation for documentation; 18th International conference on documentation, Rome, Italy, September 15-21, 1951 (Lee), 243-245
Irvine, Dallas. Storage problems and micro-reproduction, 84-86
Italian Bibliographical center (COI), 119-120

Jackson, Eugene B. Unpublished research reports: a problem in bibliographical control (COI), 120
Jackson, Lucille, editor. Technical libraries; their organization and management (COI), 176
Jackson, Willis. Information theory (COI), 176
Joint project of Library of Congress and University of North Carolina microfilms 2,500,000 pages of official records on each of 48 states, 245

Krieger, K.A. A punched-card system for chemical literature (COI), 63
Kuipers, J.W. Microcards and documentation, 89-95

La Documentation (COI), 61
Lamb, William Kaye. Towards a national library (COI), 255
Landes, Kenneth K. A scrutiny of the abstract (COI), 255
Lane, John C. and John Metschl. Continuous collection and classification of data as an aid in preparing surveys (COI), 255
Larkey, Sanford V. The Medical Library Association and medical research (COI), 255-256
Leaver, E.W. and J.J. Brown. Electronics and human beings (COI), 256
Lee, Milton. International Federation for Documentation; 18th International Conference on Documentation, Rome, Italy, September 15-21, 1951, 243-245
Lewton, Lucy O. The Special Libraries Association and literature searching (COI), 256
Library of Congress publication new "Serial titles newly received" (COI), 121
Library records for government publications, 245
Library service in Great Britain: Annual conference of the Library Association (COI), 176
Lindsay, Sir Harry. The Imperial Institute: its work as a special library and information bureau (COI), 64
List of current specialized abstracting and indexing services (COI), 64
List of nominating agencies and members 1951, American Documentation Institute, 127-129
List of nominees for membership in American Documentation Institute, 200-201
Lists of available microfilms, University of Chicago, 245
Lorphevre, G. The work of Commission 46 of the International Standards organization concerning standardization in the field of documentation (COI), 64

L'Osservatore Romano on microfilm, 112
Lunn, Jean. Bibliographical services in Canada (COI), 120
Luther, Frederic. The earliest experiments in microphotography, 167-170
Lydenberg, H.M. Tomorrow (COI), 64

Mackay, D.M. Quantal aspects of scientific information (COI), 256
Maguire, John M. Adaptation of modern mechanical and electrical aids to the Assembly of Tax Information (COI), 64-65
McBride, Russell S. Supplemental publication, a problem in documentation, 249-251
McClure, H.B. Publicizing research results (COI), 176
McGee, James H. The organization of an abstracting service (COI), 65
Mechanical methods of enlargement print production and related processes in use at the Library of Congress (Holmes), 216-219
Mechanical translation, 246-247
Meeting of the ARL Committee on national needs (COI), 256
Membership question, ADI (Evans), 187-189
Metallurgical Board established to advise Defense Department (COI), 120
Metcalf, Keyes K. Co-operative development of research collections in the United States, 18-20
Methods of printing and reproducing scholarly materials, new (Silver) 54-58
Metschl, John and John C. Lane. Continuous collection and classification of data as an aid in preparing surveys (COI), 64
Microcards: And documentation (Kuipers), 89-95; P Philippine Islands documents on, 247; Proposed for back files of geophysical journals, 248; vs. the cost of book storage (Rider), 39-44
Microfilm: A. D . I. list of periodicals on, 1951, 108-109; As a substitute for binding (Power), 33-39; As an edition process of documentary reproduction (Power), 157-159; Backfiles of current periodicals available on, 242; Baptist publications on, 109,242; Joint project of Library of Congress and University of North Carolina, 245; List of available, University of Chicago, 245; L'Osservatore Romano on, 112; The Nation on, 115; New horizons with (Ellsworth), 221-228; Planning for operations (Born), 1-5; official Gazette of the United State Patent Office, 247; Quality loss in newspaper, 112-113.
Microfilmed: Congressional hearings and reports to be, 109; Daily reports, foreign radio broadcasts to be, 242; Evidentiary value of records, 110-112; New York Times Index, 247; Shaker records, 113-115; Squibb Abstract Bulletin, 249.
Microphotography, earliest experiments in (Luther), 167-170
Microprint (Boni), 150-152
Micro-reproduction, storage problems and, (Irvine), 84-86
Miles, Samuel A. Articulate science (COI), 256-257
MLA style sheet (COI), 120-121
Moholy, Lucia. Co-ordination of policy in documentary reproduction (COI), 65
Mooers, Calvin N. Zatocoding applied to mechanical organization of knowledge, 20-32
Movements of books across national boundaries (COI), 257
Murphy, Walter J. The pace now is much faster (COI), 257

Nation on microfilm, 115
National Bibliographic Institute (COI), 176
National Science Foundation, Act of 1950 (COI), 121
Navy Research Section-Library of Congress (COI), 121
New ASLIB service (COI), 177
New horizons with microfilm (Ellsworth), 221-228
New Library of Congress publication "Serial Title newly received" (COI), 121
New methods of printing and reproducing scholarly materials (Silver), 54-58
New York Times Index, 247
Newsletter, the 1951 annual meeting of the American Documentation Institute (Evans), 69-76

Oatfield, Harold. Literature of the chemical periphery (COI), 65
Office robots (COI), 257
Officers and committee of ADI, 190-192
Operations research-with special reference to non-military research (COI), 177
Organization of Information, 59-68, 116-126, 171-180, 252-259
Organizing the United Nations documents collection (Harris), 141-149
Original versus microphotographed editions of documents (Tate), 150

Patent Gazette microfilms available, 247
Pearl, Richard M. Guide to geologic literature (COI), 177
Pears, James B. Estimating the value of information services (COI), 257
Perry, James W. Literature chemist (COI), 65; Superimposed punching of numerical codes on hand-sorted punch cards, 205-212
Perry, J.W. and S.R. Ranganathan, External memory and research (COI), 177
Peut-on rationaliser la documentation (COI), 121
Philippine Islands documents on microcards, 247
Photo composition, 247-248
Photographic activities of the National Archives of India, 248
Photronic reproducer (Huebner), 238-240
Planning for microfilm operations (Born), 1-5
Point of view, Division of Public Documents (Eastin), 160-162; of the librarian (Wilcox), 162-166
Pollard, A.F.C. The British Society for International Bibliography (COI), 65-66

Polygraph in the library of the University of Virginia (Wilson), 97-100
Possible correlation of all forms of microtext (Rider), 152-157
Power, Eugene B. Microfilm as a substitute for binding, 33-39; Microfilm as an edition process of documentary reproduction, 157-159
Present state of research on mechanical translation (Bar-Hillel), 229-237
Proposals for new organization in the field of documentation, 190
Proposed: Documentation society, A.D.I., 190; Microcarding of back files of geophysical journals, 248
Priest, Ernest H., Luta M. Sewell and Lester J. Cappon. Creation of records: the program of Colonial Williamsburg (COI), 177
Principles of abstracting (COI), 66
Prinzhorn, Fritz. Documentation in the technical and economic field in Germany (COI), 121
Public documents resources of the University Library (North Carolina), 248-249
Publication of the non-secret results of AEC supported research (COI), 122

Quality loss in newspaper microfilm, 112-113
Quality or quantity? (COI), 122

Ranganthan, S.R. Self-perpetuating scheme of classification (COI), 66
Ranganathan, S.R. and J.W. Perry. External memory and research (COI), 177
Rapid announcement of the contents of scientific journals (Bray), 213-216
Rapoport, Anatol and Alfonso Shimbel. Mathematical biophysics, Cybernetics and general Semantics (COI), 66
Recording of master negatives in the Union List of Microfilms, letter (Carruthers), 259-260
Regional library systems in Great Britain (COI), 122
Report: Of the annual meeting of the American Documentation Institute, 77-80; of the committee appointed to consider the question of establishing an anatomical review journal (COI), 257; Of the Committee on Science and the Public Welfare (COI), 257-258; On technical information services (COI), 177-178; On the activities and the meeting of the co-ordinating committee on abstracting and indexing in the medical and biological sciences (COI), 258; Of the membership committee, A.D.I., 189-190; Of the study for the Ford Foundation on policy and program (COI), 122
Reproduction paper coating, 249
Researchers' Contact Organization of the Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering sciences (COI), 258
Rhetoric and elocution, 249
Richardson, A.S. Foundations of chemistry (COI), 122-123
Rider, Fremont. Microcards vs. the cost of book storage, 39-44; The possible correlation of all forms of microtext, 152-157
Robb, Seymour, Thomas P. Fleming and Estelle Brodman. A continuous bibliographic service in university libraries (COI), 118-119
Rogers, Rutherford D. Subject bibliography versus subject catalog and periodical index (COI), 178
Role of documentation in research administration (Scott), 44-47
Royal Society Information Services Committee (COI), 123

Scholten, W. The work of the Netherlands Committee on Russian scientific and technical literature (COI), 258
Scott, Eugene W. Primary publication (COI), 258; The role of documentation in research administration, 44-47
Searching the chemical literature (COI), 178
75th anniversary conference of the American Library Association (COI), 178
Sewell, Luta M., Ernest H. Priest, and Lester J. Cappon, Creation of records: the program of Colonial Williamsburg (COI), 177
Shaker records microfilmed, 113-115
Shaw, Ralph R. Copyright and the right to credit (COI), 123
Shelby, Charmion. The handbook of Latin American studies: its first fifteen years (COI), 178
Shepardson, George D. Suggestions for an index of engineering literature (COI), 66-67
Shera, Jesse H. Bibliographic management, 47-54; Documentation: its scope and limitations (COI), 123; Report of the United States delagate to the UNESCO Conference on the improvement of bibliographic services, Paris, France, November 7-10, 1950 (COI), 123-124
Shera, Jesse H. and Margaret E. Egan (editors). Bibliographical organization (COI), 178
Shimbel, Alfonso and Anatol Rapoport. Mathematical biophysics, Cybernetics and general Semantics (COI), 66
Shorter communications, news and technical notes, 108-115, 241-251
Siegel, A. Modern methods of loose leaf construction (COI), 258-259
Silver, Henry M. New methods of printing and reproducing scholarly materials, 54-58; What every scholar should know (COI), 178-179
Simon, Leslie E. German research in World War II (COI), 67
"S" in UNESCO (COI), 258
Smith, Julian F. Decalogue of science documentation (COI), 179
Smith, Maurice H. Service for contractors (COI),124
Some comments on mechanical selection (Vickery), 102-107
Squibb Abstract Bulletin, 249

Stemmle, Louise, Robert Wolf and Frederick F. Yonkman. Filing lantern slides (COI), 180
Stewart, George R. The twilight of the printed book (COI), 259
Storage problems and micro-reproduction (Irvine), 84-86
Streamlining of literature searching proceeds with mechanization (COI), 179
Style manual for guidance in the preparation of papers for journals published by the American Institute of Physics (COI), 124-259
Substitution of microfacsimile copies for depository publications, 249
Superimposed punching of numerical codes on hand-sorted punch cards (Perry), 205-212
Supplemental publication, a problem in documentation (McBride), 249-251
Symposium on microphotography from the user's point of view (COI), 124
Synge, J.L. Science: sense and nonsense (COI), 179

Tate, Vernon K. Chemical Abstracts, 181; Editor's Corner, 259-262; Foreword, iii-iv; Original versus microphotographed editions of documents, 150; Telefact Foundation, 182-184
Technical information activities of the Department of Defense (COI), 259
Technisches Zentralblatt (COI), 179
Telefact Foundation (Tate), 182-184
Tentative program for the deferred annual meeting, February 26-27, 1952, 186-187
Thermo-fax, Stenafax and Xerox (Conrad), 95-97
Tonnon, J.C. and L.J. Ven Der Wolk. The microcopy on flat film as an aid in documentation (COI), 180
Translating machines? (COI), 67

UNESCO coordinating committee on documentation in the social sciences (COI), 124-125
UNESCO/Library of Congress Bibliographical survey Bibliographical services-their present state and possibilities of improvement (COI), 67
Urquhart, D.J. American impressions, 100-102
User needs in a microfacsimile reader (Conrad), 201-204

Van Der Wolk, L.J., and J.C. Tonnon. The microcopy on flat film as an aid in documentation (COI), 180
Vanderbilt, Paul. National bibliography and bibliographical control (COI), 67-68; Tele-facsimile in 1880 (COI), 179-180
Vauthier, Etienne. Les Ressources Bibliographiques de la Belgique: Etat Actuel et Possibilites d'Amelioration (COI), 125
Vickery, Brian C. Some comments on mechanical selection, 102-107

Walker, Colonel Fred L. Jr. Blueprint for knowledge (COI), 68
Waterman, Alan T. Federal support of foundamental research in the biological sciences (COI), 180; The National Science Foundation Program (COI), 180
Wiener, Norbert. The human use of human beings (COI), 125
Winter, Arno. International professional documentation (COI), 125
Wilcox, Jerome K. The point of view of the librarian, 162-166
Wilson, Baxter D. The polygraph in the library of the University of Virginia, 97-100
Woke, Paul Alfred. Considerations on utilization of scientific literature (COI), 125-126
Wolf, Robert, Louise Stemmle and Frederick F. Yonkman. Filing lantern slides (COI), 180
World conference on documentation-organized by the International Federation for Documentation, Rome 15-22 September 1951 (COI), 126

Xerox camera and duplicating process, 115

Yonkman, Frederick F., Robert Wolf and Louise Stemmle. Filing lantern slides (COI), 180

Zatocoding applied to mechanical organization of knowledge (Mooers), 20-32
Zitmore, Irving. How to decide whether to microfilm records, and how to go about it (COI), 126

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION 1951

A QUARTERLY REVIEW OF IDEAS, TECHNIQUES, PROBLEMS AND ACHIEVEMENTS IN DOCUMENTATION

VOL. II, NOS. 1-4 JANUARY-OCTOBER 1951

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION

Published quarterly by the American Documentation Institute through its Committee on Publications. The scheduled numbers are: Winter (January), Spring (April), Summer (August) and Fall (October). Publication in part made possible by a grant from the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

EDITOR

VERNON D. TATE
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Cambridge 39, Mass.

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

NORMAN T. BALL
O.E.E.C.
London, England

HELEN L. BROWNSON
Scientific Information Office
National Science Foundation
Washington, D. C.

RALPH H. CARRUTHERS
New York Public Library
New York, N. Y.

HERMAN H. FUSSLER
University of Chicago
Chicago, Ill.

DAN LACY
Library of Congress
Washington, D. C.

JAMES W. PERRY
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
Cambridge 39, Mass.

EUGENE B. POWER
University Microfilms
Ann Arbor, Mich.

RALPH R. SHAW
U. S. Department of Agriculture
Washington, D. C.

HENRY M. SILVER
American Council of Learned Societies
New York, N. Y.

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION is an independent, impartial critical journal whose editors and publishers are motivated only by the spirit of scientific inquiry and service to the users of documentation. Publication is on a cooperative, non profit basis. The editors while they assume editorial responsibility do not necessarily endorse the opinions expressed by the writers. No comment or pronouncement may be cited as official endorsement of the American Documentation Institute. Permission must be obtained from the Editorial Office to reprint any article in full or to quote extensively.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $5.00 (five dollars) per year postpaid in the United States and abroad; single copies $1.50. Payment should be made direct to AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION, 1719 N Street N.W., Washington 6, D. C.

ADVERTISING will be accepted. Advertising schedules and other information available from the Editorial Office.

EDITORIAL OFFICE: General correspondence, communications for the Editors and all manuscripts should be directed to:

VERNON D. TATE, Editor AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION
Massachusetts Institute of Technology
77 Massachusetts Avenue, Room 14 S 216
Cambridge 39, Mass.

Communications and pertinent manuscripts are solicited; the non-profit character of the journal precludes payment for manuscripts and those sent will be at the owners' risk.

LITHOPRINTED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA BY
CUSHING - MALLOY, INC., ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, 1952

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION

Annual Index, Volume II, Nos. 1-4

JANUARY-OCTOBER, 1951

Abstracts of corrosion literature (COI), 116
Accessibility of knowledge (COI), 252
ACRL Monographs, 241
ACS Board of Director minutes, June 6, 1951 (COI), 171
AEC, ASTIA, NACA catalog card (Gray), 219-221, 261-262
American Documentation Institute: Agenda for the Stated Annual Meeting, January 31, 1952 (Conrad), 186; Annual Meeting, 77-80; Annual Meeting, 1951 (Evans), 69-76; Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws of, as of January 1, 1952, 192-200; Committee on Organization of Information, 59-68, 116-126, 171-180, 252-259; Hewitt-Miles proposals, 190; List of nominating agencies and members 1951, 127-129; List nominees for membership in, 200-201; List of periodicals on microfilm, 1951, 108-109; Membership question (Evans), 187-189; Message to members of (Evans), 185-186; Officers and committees of, 190-192; The president's newsletter (Evans), 185-200; Proposals for new organizations in the field of documentation, 190; Proposed Documentation Society, 190; Report of the Membership Committee, 189-190; Supplemental publication, a problem in documentation (McBride), 249-251; Tentative program for the deferred Annual Meeting, February 26-27, 1952, 186-187
American impressions (Urquhart), 100-102
American Printer, 132, December 1951 (COI), 252
Aspects of archival publication, 241-242
Association of College and Reference Libraries initiates new publication, ACRL Monographs, 241
Association of Research Libraries Committee on national needs (COI), 116

Backfiles of current periodicals available on microfilm, 242
Ball, Norman T. Notes on the German classification of patents (COI), 59
Baptist publications on microfilm, 109, 242.
Bar-Hillel, Yehoshua. The present state of research on mechanical translation, 229-237
Baumhofer, Hermine M. Motion pictures become federal records (COI), 252
Benson, B.S. Description of an automatic data-analyzing machine (COI), 59
Bernal, J.D. Lessons of the war for science (COI), 59; Social function of science (COI), 116
Bibliographic, development in the social sciences (Egan), 11-18; Management (Shera), 47-54
Bibliography, in an age of science (COI), 171; of science in Latin America (COI), 171-172
Bliss, Henry E. The problem of classification for bibliography, and a proposal (COI), 59-60
Boig, Fletcher S., and Howerton, Paul W. History and development of chemical periodicals in the field of organic chemistry: 1877-1949 (COI), 252
Bond, D.S. and Duke, V.J., Ultrafax (COI), 60
Boni, Albert, Microprint, 150-152
Bonn, George A. Relative usefulness of indexing and abstracting service (COI), 172
Born, Lester K. International Council on archives (COI), 172; Planning for microfilm operations, 1-5
Bray, Robert S. Rapid announcement of the contents of scientific journals, 213-216
Brewer, Chloe S. Abstracting and indexing (COI), 60
Brief outline of UNESCO's library and bibliographical programes, 1951 (COI), 172
Briet, Suzanne. Inquiry concerning the professional education of librarians and documentalists (COI), 252-253
Bristol, Roger P. Control of subject information: can it be mechanized? (COI), 172
Brode, Wallace R. Journal abbreviations (COI), 172
Brodman, Estelle, Thomas P. Fleming and Seymour Robb. A continuous bibliographic service in university libraries (COI), 118-119
Brown, J.J. and E.W. Leaver. Electronics and human beings (COI), 256
Burgess, L.A. The bibliographic system of classification (COI), 116-117
Butterfield, Lyman H. The guides that bring the history of America into focus (COI), 172-173

Cappon, Lester J., Ernest H. Priest and Luta M. Sewell. Creation of records: the program of Colonial Williamsburg (COI), 177
Carruthers, R.H. Recording of master negatives in the Union List of microfilms, 259-260.
Center for Scientific Aids to Learning, 242
Certain resolutions in the UNESCO program for 1952 of possible interest to librarians (COI), 173
Certificate of Incorporation and By-Laws of ADI as of January 1, 1952, 192-200
Challans, B.W.S. Scientific information and the research establishment (COI), 253
Changes deemed necessary in Patent Office practices Abstracting services of government agencies and special indexing services reviewed (COI), 117
Changes in existing law, 112
Chemical Abstracts (Tate), 181
Chicago Conference on bibliographic organization, 5-7

Clapp, Verner W. Indexing and abstracting: recent past and lines of future development (COI), 60; rationalization of publication of scientific literature (COI), 117
Clearing house on bibliographic projects (COI), 173
Coblans, Herbert. Some notes on American practice in documentation (COI), 117-118
Cockburn, J.G. The indexing of abstracts (COI), 60
Committee on Indexing and Abstracting (Crane), 245-246
Committee on Organization of Information, 59-68, 116-126, 171-180, 252-259
Conference on rapid transmission of information (COI), 253
Congressional hearings and reports to be microfilmed, 109
Conrad, G. Miles. Agenda for the stated Annual Meeting, ADI, January 31, 1952, 186; Thermo-fax, Stenafax and Xerox, 95-97; User needs in a microfacsimile reader, 201-204
Continuous film processing machines, 242
Contribution to the National Bibliography (COI), 253
Coöperative development of research collections in the United States (Metcalf), 18-20
Crane, E.J. Committee on Indexing and Abstracting, 245-246; Discussion of "Discovering sources of research material", 83
Cremer, H.W. Scientific communication (COI), 118
Crowley, John D. The training of the documentalist (COI), 60-61
Croxton, Fred E. The location of literature of atomic energy (COI), 173
Cumulative catalog technique at the Library of Congress (Gull), 131-141

Daily reports, foreign radio broadcasts to be microfilmed, 242
Danker, William H. The mobilization of scientific facts (COI), 173
Davis, Watson. Developments in auxiliary publication, 7-11; 15 years experience with auxiliary publication, 87-89
Deignan, Stella Leche. The medical sciences information exchange of the National Research Council (COI), 118
Delany, Robert F. The administration of Intelligence Archives (COI), 173
Development of library resources, 242
Developments in auxiliary publication (Davis), 7-11
D'Haenens, Leon. Documentation autonome ou collective? (COI), 173-174
Digital computing machine, 242-243
Directory of microfilm and photocopying services (COI), 118
Discovering sources of research material (Groesbeck), 80-82; Discussion of (Crane), 83
Ditmas, E.M.R. The co-ordination of abstracting services -UNESCO's approach to the problem (COI), 61
Documentation techniques in the U.S.A., 243
Donker Duyvis, F. Das Verhaltnes von nationaler und internationaler Dokumentation (COI), 118; Directories of documentation centres (COI), 61
Duke, V.J. and D.S. Bond. Ultrafax (COI), 60

Earliest experiments in microphotography (Luther), 167-170
East European accessions list, Library of Congress Information Bulletin, (COI), 253
Eastin, Roy. The point of view of the Division of Public Documents, 160-162
Editorial notes (COI), 61
"Editorial" unanswered questions (COI), 253
Editor's corner (Tate), 181-184, 259-262
Egan, Margared E. Bibliographic development in the social sciences, 11-18
Egan, Margaret and Jesse H. Shera (Editors) Bibliographical Organization (COI), 178
Ellsworth, R.S. New horizons with microfilm, 221-228
English literary periodicals, 109-110
Erhart, John A. Ultra-high-speed facsimile systems (COI), 253
Evans, Luther H. Membership question, 187-189; Message to the members of the American Documentation Institute, 185-186; Newsletter: the 1951 annual meeting of the American Documentation Institute, 69-76; President's newsletter, 185-200
Evidentiary value of microfilmed records, 110-112

Faigri, Knut. Language problems in science (COI), 253-254
Farradine, J.E.L. A scientific theory of classification and indexing and its practical applications (COI), 61-62
"Faxcard" business unit allows fast reproduction (COI), 62
Fifteen years experience with Auxiliary Publication (Davis), 87-89
First annual report of the Advisory Council on Scientific Policy (1947-1948) (COI), 62
First report of the Committee on Industrial Productivity (COI), 62
Fleming, Thomas P., Estelle Brodman and Seymour Robb. A continuous bibliographic service in university libraries (COI), 118-119
Foreword (Tate), iii-iv
Frauendorfer, Sigmund Von. International unification of cataloging? (COI), 174
Fulcher, Gordon S. The usefulness of analytic abstracts (COI), 62-63

General report of the Conference on the Improvement of Bibliographic Services, UNESCO House, Paris, 7-10 November 1950 (COI), 119
Gotschall, Edward. Photographic composition machines (COI),174

Gray, Dwight E. AEC,ASTIA,NACA catalog card 219-221, 261-262; Controlling the technical report (COI), 254; Dissemination of technical information by AEC (COI), 254; Experiment in standardization: a report from Washington (COI), 63; Library of Congress Science Division (COI), 119; NRS microcards (COI), 119; Recent developments in Physics abstracting (COI), 174; User reaction to ONR-NRS microcards (COI), 174
Green, John W. The use of punched cards in the teaching of qualitative organic analysis (COI), 254
Groesbeck, Joseph A. Discovering sources of research material, 80-82
Gropp, Arthur E. Presentation (COI), 175
Gull, C.D. The cumulative catalog technique at the Library of Congress, 131-141
Guthrie, Warren. Books, civilization, and science (COI), 119

Handbook of human engineering data for design engineers (COI), 254
Hanson, C.W. Costing information services (COI), 254
Harris, Alfred G. Organizing the United Nations documents collection, 141-149
Harrison, George R. Twenty years of age (COI), 254-255
Haughton, Sidney H. The preservation of records by microphotography in the United States of America (COI), 63
Heatwole, M.K. and Saul Herner. The planning of libraries for military research establishments (COI), 175
Herner, Saul and M.K. Heatwole. The planning of libraries for military research establishments (COI), 175
Hewitt, William F. Jr. Science communications (COI), 255
Hewitt-Miles proposals, A.D.I., 190
Holmes, Donald C. Mechanical methods of enlargement print production and related processes in use at the Library of Congress, 216-219
Holstrom, J.E. The relation between reference symbols and language, (COI), 63
Huebner, William C. The photronic reproducer, 238-240

Ichikawa, Taijiro. The National Diet Library in Japan (COI), 175
ICSU establishes international abstract service (COI), 255
Interim report of the classification panel, Information Services Committee, Royal Society (COI), 175
International conference on science abstracting, final report (COI), 255
International exchange of scientific and technical publications (COI), 175-176
International federation for documentation; 18th International conference on documentation, Rome, Italy, September 15-21, 1951 (Lee), 243-245
Irvine, Dallas. Storage problems and micro-reproduction, 84-86
Italian Bibliographical center (COI), 119-120

Jackson, Eugene B. Unpublished research reports: a problem in bibliographical control (COI), 120
Jackson, Lucille, editor. Technical libraries; their organization and management (COI), 176
Jackson, Willis. Information theory (COI), 176
Joint project of Library of Congress and University of North Carolina microfilms 2,500,000 pages of official records on each of 48 states, 245

Krieger, K.A. A punched-card system for chemical literature (COI), 63
Kuipers, J.W. Microcards and documentation, 89-95

La Documentation (COI), 61
Lamb, William Kaye. Towards a national library (COI), 255
Landes, Kenneth K. A scrutiny of the abstract (COI), 255
Lane, John C. and John Metschl. Continuous collection and classification of data as an aid in preparing surveys (COI), 255
Larkey, Sanford V. The Medical Library Association and medical research (COI), 255-256
Leaver, E.W. and J.J. Brown. Electronics and human beings (COI), 256
Lee, Milton. International Federation for Documentation; 18th International Conference on Documentation, Rome, Italy, September 15-21, 1951, 243-245
Lewton, Lucy O. The Special Libraries Association and literature searching (COI), 256
Library of Congress publication new "Serial titles newly received" (COI), 121
Library records for government publications, 245
Library service in Great Britain: Annual conference of the Library Association (COI), 176
Lindsay, Sir Harry. The Imperial Institute: its work as a special library and information bureau (COI), 64
List of current specialized abstracting and indexing services (COI), 64
List of nominating agencies and members 1951, American Documentation Institute, 127-129
List of nominees for membership in American Documentation Institute, 200-201
Lists of available microfilms, University of Chicago, 245
Lorphevre, G. The work of Commission 46 of the International Standards organization concerning standardization in the field of documentation (COI), 64

L'Osservatore Romano on microfilm, 112
Lunn, Jean. Bibliographical services in Canada (COI), 120
Luther, Frederic. The earliest experiments in microphotography, 167-170
Lydenberg, H.M. Tomorrow (COI), 64

Mackay, D.M. Quantal aspects of scientific information (COI), 256
Maguire, John M. Adaptation of modern mechanical and electrical aids to the Assembly of Tax Information (COI), 64-65
McBride, Russell S. Supplemental publication, a problem in documentation, 249-251
McClure, H.B. Publicizing research results (COI), 176
McGee, James H. The organization of an abstracting service (COI), 65
Mechanical methods of enlargement print production and related processes in use at the Library of Congress (Holmes), 216-219
Mechanical translation, 246-247
Meeting of the ARL Committee on national needs (COI), 256
Membership question, ADI (Evans), 187-189
Metallurgical Board established to advise Defense Department (COI), 120
Metcalf, Keyes K. Co-operative development of research collections in the United States, 18-20
Methods of printing and reproducing scholarly materials, new (Silver) 54-58
Metschl, John and John C. Lane. Continuous collection and classification of data as an aid in preparing surveys (COI), 64
Microcards: And documentation (Kuipers), 89-95; P Philippine Islands documents on, 247; Proposed for back files of geophysical journals, 248; vs. the cost of book storage (Rider), 39-44
Microfilm: A. D . I. list of periodicals on, 1951, 108-109; As a substitute for binding (Power), 33-39; As an edition process of documentary reproduction (Power), 157-159; Backfiles of current periodicals available on, 242; Baptist publications on, 109,242; Joint project of Library of Congress and University of North Carolina, 245; List of available, University of Chicago, 245; L'Osservatore Romano on, 112; The Nation on, 115; New horizons with (Ellsworth), 221-228; Planning for operations (Born), 1-5; official Gazette of the United State Patent Office, 247; Quality loss in newspaper, 112-113.
Microfilmed: Congressional hearings and reports to be, 109; Daily reports, foreign radio broadcasts to be, 242; Evidentiary value of records, 110-112; New York Times Index, 247; Shaker records, 113-115; Squibb Abstract Bulletin, 249.
Microphotography, earliest experiments in (Luther), 167-170
Microprint (Boni), 150-152
Micro-reproduction, storage problems and, (Irvine), 84-86
Miles, Samuel A. Articulate science (COI), 256-257
MLA style sheet (COI), 120-121
Moholy, Lucia. Co-ordination of policy in documentary reproduction (COI), 65
Mooers, Calvin N. Zatocoding applied to mechanical organization of knowledge, 20-32
Movements of books across national boundaries (COI), 257
Murphy, Walter J. The pace now is much faster (COI), 257

Nation on microfilm, 115
National Bibliographic Institute (COI), 176
National Science Foundation, Act of 1950 (COI), 121
Navy Research Section-Library of Congress (COI), 121
New ASLIB service (COI), 177
New horizons with microfilm (Ellsworth), 221-228
New Library of Congress publication "Serial Title newly received" (COI), 121
New methods of printing and reproducing scholarly materials (Silver), 54-58
New York Times Index, 247
Newsletter, the 1951 annual meeting of the American Documentation Institute (Evans), 69-76

Oatfield, Harold. Literature of the chemical periphery (COI), 65
Office robots (COI), 257
Officers and committee of ADI, 190-192
Operations research-with special reference to non-military research (COI), 177
Organization of Information, 59-68, 116-126, 171-180, 252-259
Organizing the United Nations documents collection (Harris), 141-149
Original versus microphotographed editions of documents (Tate), 150

Patent Gazette microfilms available, 247
Pearl, Richard M. Guide to geologic literature (COI), 177
Pears, James B. Estimating the value of information services (COI), 257
Perry, James W. Literature chemist (COI), 65; Superimposed punching of numerical codes on hand-sorted punch cards, 205-212
Perry, J.W. and S.R. Ranganathan, External memory and research (COI), 177
Peut-on rationaliser la documentation (COI), 121
Philippine Islands documents on microcards, 247
Photo composition, 247-248
Photographic activities of the National Archives of India, 248
Photronic reproducer (Huebner), 238-240
Planning for microfilm operations (Born), 1-5
Point of view, Division of Public Documents (Eastin), 160-162; of the librarian (Wilcox), 162-166
Pollard, A.F.C. The British Society for International Bibliography (COI), 65-66

Polygraph in the library of the University of Virginia (Wilson), 97-100
Possible correlation of all forms of microtext (Rider), 152-157
Power, Eugene B. Microfilm as a substitute for binding, 33-39; Microfilm as an edition process of documentary reproduction, 157-159
Present state of research on mechanical translation (Bar-Hillel), 229-237
Proposals for new organization in the field of documentation, 190
Proposed: Documentation society, A.D.I., 190; Microcarding of back files of geophysical journals, 248
Priest, Ernest H., Luta M. Sewell and Lester J. Cappon. Creation of records: the program of Colonial Williamsburg (COI), 177
Principles of abstracting (COI), 66
Prinzhorn, Fritz. Documentation in the technical and economic field in Germany (COI), 121
Public documents resources of the University Library (North Carolina), 248-249
Publication of the non-secret results of AEC supported research (COI), 122

Quality loss in newspaper microfilm, 112-113
Quality or quantity? (COI), 122

Ranganthan, S.R. Self-perpetuating scheme of classification (COI), 66
Ranganathan, S.R. and J.W. Perry. External memory and research (COI), 177
Rapid announcement of the contents of scientific journals (Bray), 213-216
Rapoport, Anatol and Alfonso Shimbel. Mathematical biophysics, Cybernetics and general Semantics (COI), 66
Recording of master negatives in the Union List of Microfilms, letter (Carruthers), 259-260
Regional library systems in Great Britain (COI), 122
Report: Of the annual meeting of the American Documentation Institute, 77-80; of the committee appointed to consider the question of establishing an anatomical review journal (COI), 257; Of the Committee on Science and the Public Welfare (COI), 257-258; On technical information services (COI), 177-178; On the activities and the meeting of the co-ordinating committee on abstracting and indexing in the medical and biological sciences (COI), 258; Of the membership committee, A.D.I., 189-190; Of the study for the Ford Foundation on policy and program (COI), 122
Reproduction paper coating, 249
Researchers' Contact Organization of the Royal Swedish Academy of Engineering sciences (COI), 258
Rhetoric and elocution, 249
Richardson, A.S. Foundations of chemistry (COI), 122-123
Rider, Fremont. Microcards vs. the cost of book storage, 39-44; The possible correlation of all forms of microtext, 152-157
Robb, Seymour, Thomas P. Fleming and Estelle Brodman. A continuous bibliographic service in university libraries (COI), 118-119
Rogers, Rutherford D. Subject bibliography versus subject catalog and periodical index (COI), 178
Role of documentation in research administration (Scott), 44-47
Royal Society Information Services Committee (COI), 123

Scholten, W. The work of the Netherlands Committee on Russian scientific and technical literature (COI), 258
Scott, Eugene W. Primary publication (COI), 258; The role of documentation in research administration, 44-47
Searching the chemical literature (COI), 178
75th anniversary conference of the American Library Association (COI), 178
Sewell, Luta M., Ernest H. Priest, and Lester J. Cappon, Creation of records: the program of Colonial Williamsburg (COI), 177
Shaker records microfilmed, 113-115
Shaw, Ralph R. Copyright and the right to credit (COI), 123
Shelby, Charmion. The handbook of Latin American studies: its first fifteen years (COI), 178
Shepardson, George D. Suggestions for an index of engineering literature (COI), 66-67
Shera, Jesse H. Bibliographic management, 47-54; Documentation: its scope and limitations (COI), 123; Report of the United States delagate to the UNESCO Conference on the improvement of bibliographic services, Paris, France, November 7-10, 1950 (COI), 123-124
Shera, Jesse H. and Margaret E. Egan (editors). Bibliographical organization (COI), 178
Shimbel, Alfonso and Anatol Rapoport. Mathematical biophysics, Cybernetics and general Semantics (COI), 66
Shorter communications, news and technical notes, 108-115, 241-251
Siegel, A. Modern methods of loose leaf construction (COI), 258-259
Silver, Henry M. New methods of printing and reproducing scholarly materials, 54-58; What every scholar should know (COI), 178-179
Simon, Leslie E. German research in World War II (COI), 67
"S" in UNESCO (COI), 258
Smith, Julian F. Decalogue of science documentation (COI), 179
Smith, Maurice H. Service for contractors (COI),124
Some comments on mechanical selection (Vickery), 102-107
Squibb Abstract Bulletin, 249

Stemmle, Louise, Robert Wolf and Frederick F. Yonkman. Filing lantern slides (COI), 180
Stewart, George R. The twilight of the printed book (COI), 259
Storage problems and micro-reproduction (Irvine), 84-86
Streamlining of literature searching proceeds with mechanization (COI), 179
Style manual for guidance in the preparation of papers for journals published by the American Institute of Physics (COI), 124-259
Substitution of microfacsimile copies for depository publications, 249
Superimposed punching of numerical codes on hand-sorted punch cards (Perry), 205-212
Supplemental publication, a problem in documentation (McBride), 249-251
Symposium on microphotography from the user's point of view (COI), 124
Synge, J.L. Science: sense and nonsense (COI), 179

Tate, Vernon K. Chemical Abstracts, 181; Editor's Corner, 259-262; Foreword, iii-iv; Original versus microphotographed editions of documents, 150; Telefact Foundation, 182-184
Technical information activities of the Department of Defense (COI), 259
Technisches Zentralblatt (COI), 179
Telefact Foundation (Tate), 182-184
Tentative program for the deferred annual meeting, February 26-27, 1952, 186-187
Thermo-fax, Stenafax and Xerox (Conrad), 95-97
Tonnon, J.C. and L.J. Ven Der Wolk. The microcopy on flat film as an aid in documentation (COI), 180
Translating machines? (COI), 67

UNESCO coordinating committee on documentation in the social sciences (COI), 124-125
UNESCO/Library of Congress Bibliographical survey Bibliographical services-their present state and possibilities of improvement (COI), 67
Urquhart, D.J. American impressions, 100-102
User needs in a microfacsimile reader (Conrad), 201-204

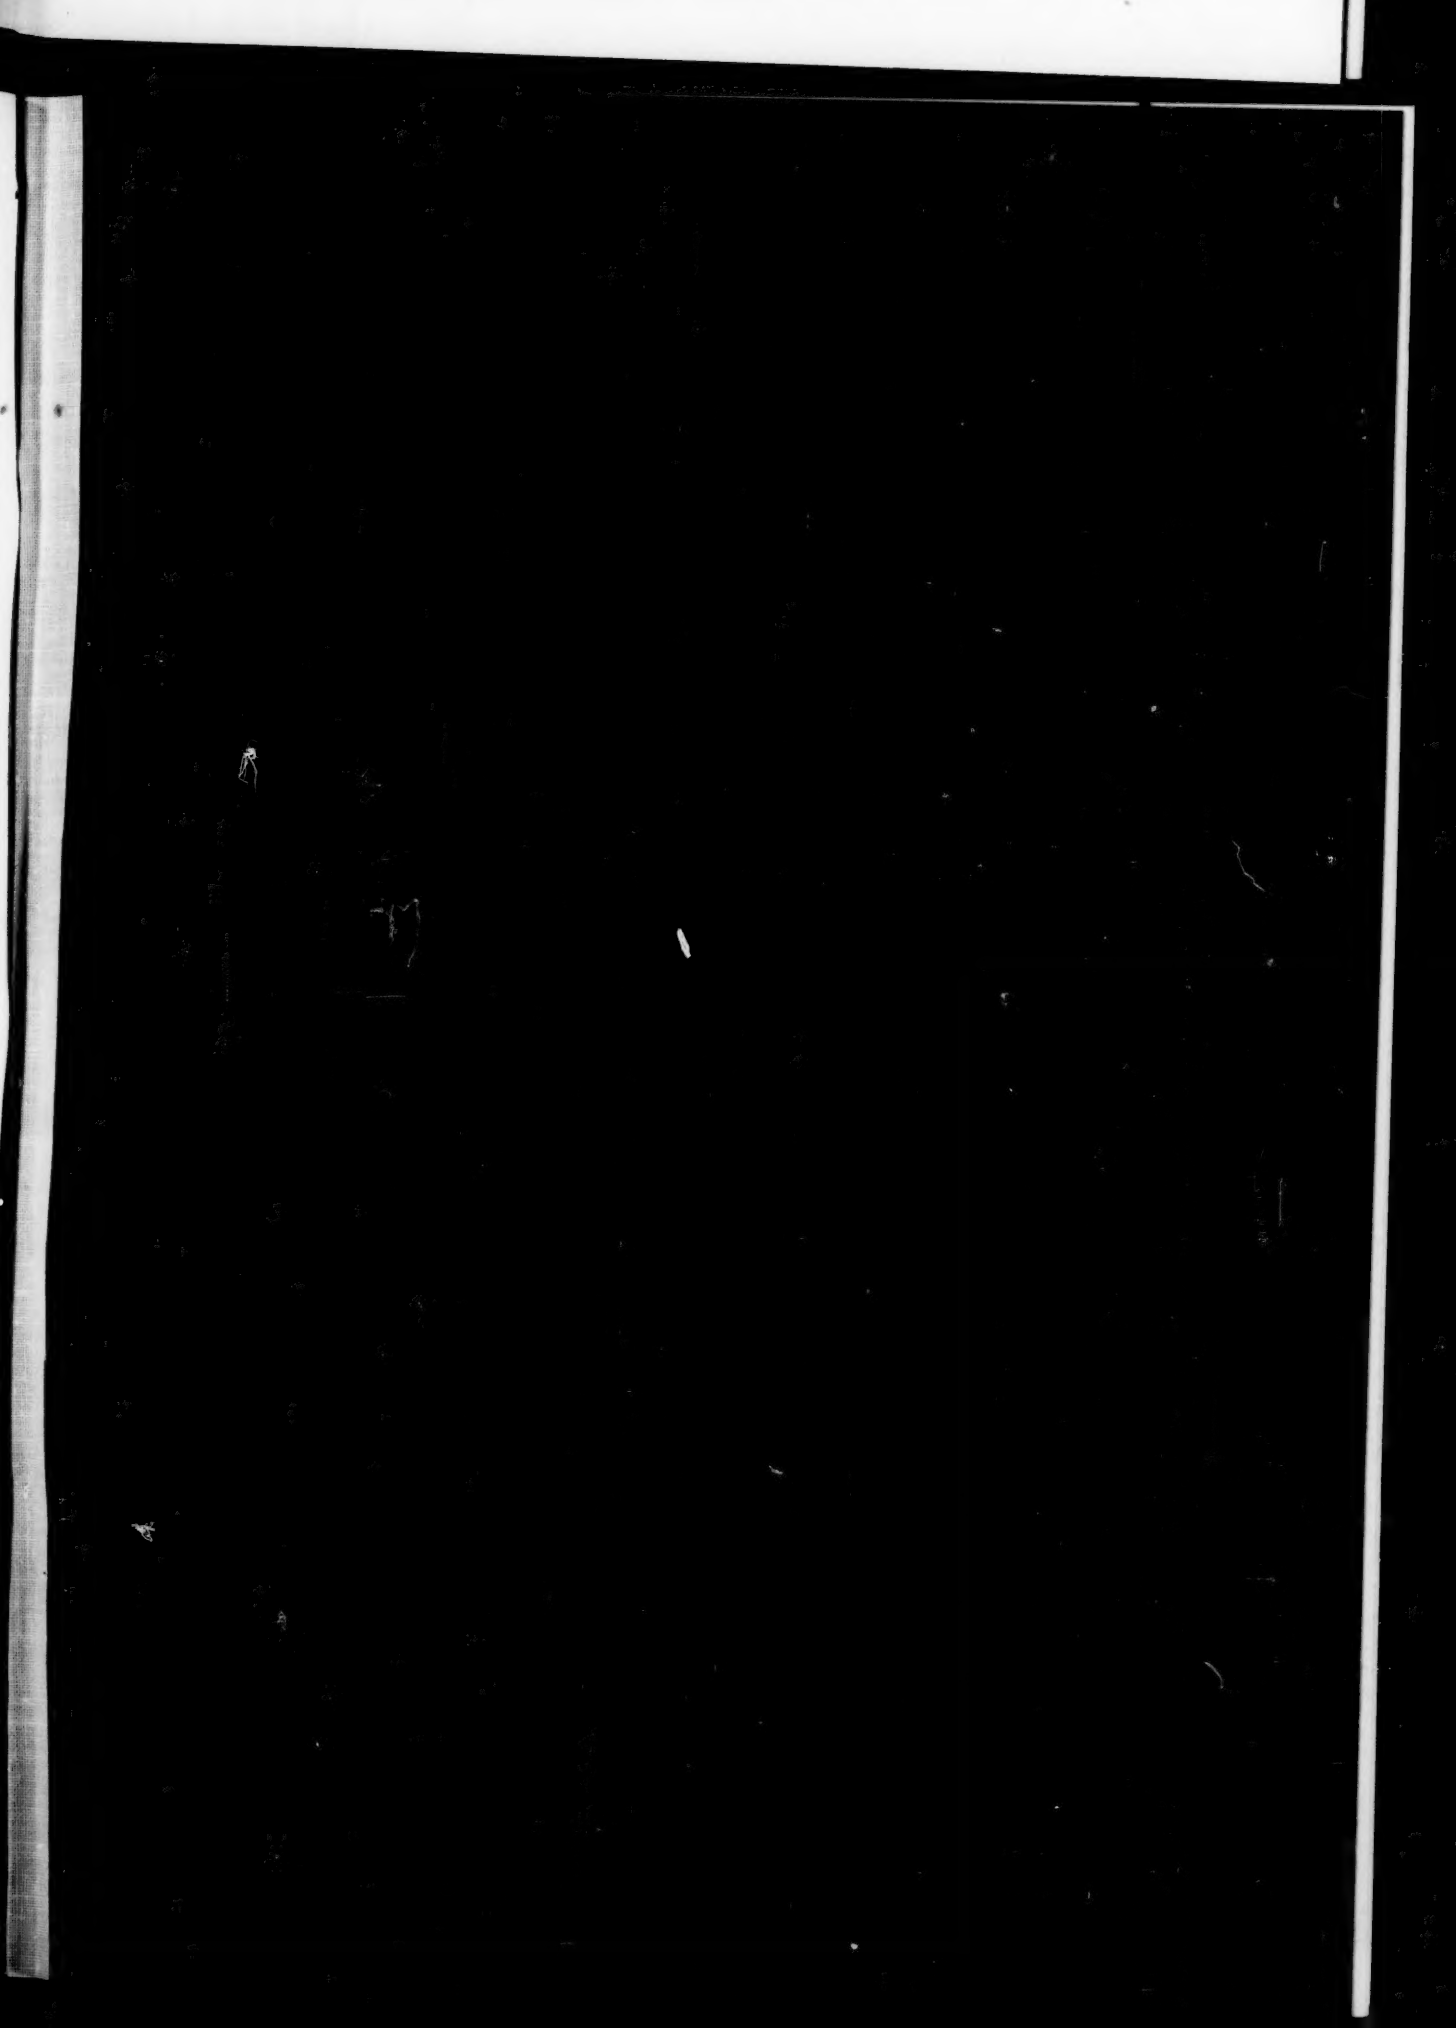
Van Der Wolk, L.J., and J.C. Tonnon. The microcopy on flat film as an aid in documentation (COI), 180
Vanderbilt, Paul. National bibliography and bibliographical control (COI), 67-68; Tele-facsimile in 1880 (COI), 179-180
Vauthier, Etienne. Les Ressources Bibliographiques de la Belgique: Etat Actuel et Possibilites d'Amelioration (COI), 125
Vickery, Brian C. Some comments on mechanical selection, 102-107

Walker, Colonel Fred L. Jr. Blueprint for knowledge (COI), 68
Waterman, Alan T. Federal support of foundamental research in the biological sciences (COI), 180; The National Science Foundation Program (COI), 180
Wiener, Norbert. The human use of human beings (COI), 125
Winter, Arno. International professional documentation (COI), 125
Wilcox, Jerome K. The point of view of the librarian, 162-166
Wilson, Baxter D. The polygraph in the library of the University of Virginia, 97-100
Woke, Paul Alfred. Considerations on utilization of scientific literature (COI), 125-126
Wolf, Robert, Louise Stemmle and Frederick F. Yonkman. Filing lantern slides (COI), 180
World conference on documentation-organized by the International Federation for Documentation, Rome 15-22 September 1951 (COI), 126

Xerox camera and duplicating process, 115

Yonkman, Frederick F., Robert Wolf and Louise Stemmle. Filing lantern slides (COI), 180

Zatocoding applied to mechanical organization of knowledge (Mooers), 20-32
Zitmore, Irving. How to decide whether to microfilm records, and how to go about it (COI), 126



It will be appreciated if remittance is enclosed to simplify billing operations.

SUBSCRIPTION FORM

AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION INSTITUTE
Library of Congress
Washington 25, D.C.

Please enter_____subscription(s) at $5.00 each for AMERICAN DOCUMENTATION for the calendar year 195___to begin with Volume_____No._____

NAME_____

ADDRESS_____

CITY, ZONE, STATE_____

Remittance enclosed* ☐ Billing instructions enclosed ☐